

Anthony Bran, migrated to South Australia in 1949 and married his now deceased wife in 1954. He has had a varied career as an actor, artist and now a writer. He wrote several articles for U.F.O magazines during the late `60`s and now is writing Historical Fiction, a genre which has always fascinated him.

He published his first novel in June 2007 and is currently engaged on his second, which will form part of a family saga, set in the turbulent times of the 16th century
